GROWING THEIR OWN

A FOOD growing programme has been launched at a Dagenham school.

Teachers and pupils at Dorothy Barley Infant School, in Davington Road, were joined by local councillors for the harvest of its first potato crop on Wednesday.

An area in the school grounds has always meant to be a vegetable patch, but a lack of funding has left the area uncultivated.

However, investment from McCain Foods means the school can now exercise its green fingers and are growing potatoes and other vegetables as part of an initiative to educate pupils about where food comes from.

Headteacher Shan Evans said: "It's vital that children, particularly those in non-rural areas, are given the opportunity to understand how the food they eat reaches their plate, otherwise there is a risk that they'll grow up thinking vegetables arrive pre-packed from their local supermarket.

"This is not just a chance for the kids to get their hands dirty - the growing programme is a great way to engage pupils with nature and teach numeracy, history, science and geography in a fun, inspiring way."

Each of the 15 classes at Dorothy

Barley have been designated their own vegetable patch to take care of. The class that harvests the most produce, determined by weight, will be in line to win a prize.

McCain Foods developed and supplied the 'Learn More With Food Galore' teaching booklets for schools and also provided seeds and gardening equipment, including rakes, spades and watering cans.

BATTY: PCSO Lee Bartle with children from Thames View Infant School.

Swapping the beat for bats

A PCSO has swapped the beat for bats by running a cricket scheme at a local school.

Lee Bartle, of Thames Safer Neighbourhoods Team, has been visiting children at Thames View Infant School, Basteable Avenue, Barking, to run an after-school cricket session.

The initiative is designed to engage youngsters in sport from an early age, diverting them from less productive activities and encouraging them to appreciate 'teamwork'.

Since starting the sessions, the children have learned to bowl, bat and work together as a team.

Headteacher Paul Jordan said: "We work very closely with our local Safer Neighbourhoods Team.

"PCSO Bartle's involvement at the school not only provides a great role model for the children, but also strengthens the school's position at the very heart of the community."

Mr Bartle said: "I have really enjoyed seeing these promising youngsters develop their skills and confidence on the cricket pitch.

"When I was their age, the police didn't visit schools to speak to us.

"I believe that by interacting with children at this age, we can promote a better understanding of what police do, and through the sport element, deter them away from crime and into more rewarding and socially acceptable pastimes, giving them the opportunity to reach their full potential."

Gifted young pianist scoops YOPEY award

By Sarah Chapleo, member of YOPEY Volunteer Board

A GIFTED schoolboy who has raised tens of thousands of pounds for charity has won an Essex Police Young People of the Year award (YOPEY).

Thirteen-year-old Cody Smart started playing boogie-woogie piano music after discovering his mum had cancer.

The youngster taught himself how to play and began performing at fetes in exchange for donations.

Onlookers have been so impressed with his unique style of music that he has been asked to play at other charity events and is believed to have helped raise more than £100,000 for good causes.

Now Cody, who goes to Roding Valley High, Alderton Hill, Loughton, which nominated him for the prestigious citizenship competition, has won £100 for being a 'positive role model who gives to others'.

He shared the junior prize with a young carer from Saffron Walden.

Cody music is blend of 1920s jazz and boogie-woogie. On YouTube he is known as the 'Boogie Woogie Boy' and been viewed about 35,000 times.

But it was his mum's illness that helped him to discover his gift.

Mum Yvonne said: "One moment Cody had a normal mum, the next he was being told I had cancer.

PROUD: Cody Smart receives his award from the High Sheriff of Essex, Lady Rosemary Ruggles-Brise.

"Within 36 hours of my diagnosis, I was sick with the chemo and my hair was falling out."

Yvonne and Cody's dad, Andy, wracked their brains trying to find ways to keep Cody occupied.

Although he was only nine at the time, the youngster was already playing one-finger tunes on a small keyboard player, saying he wanted to learn 'anything but classical'.

The family, of Epping New Road, Buckhurst Hill, had no idea Cody's hobby would turn out so well. His dad can sing and play harmonica, but mum has musical ability.

Grabbing this lifeline, Andy set about trying to find a piano teacher but in the midst of all Yvonne's chemo, he drew a blank.

In desperation, Andy bought a Teach Yourself Piano DVD, even though he never expected to see his son play. But within weeks, Cody had taught himself some songs and was keen to find an audience.

The first time he played in front of a crowd he was given such a big cheer, that he went back to his mum and said: "Mum I've got this idea. If you could find me more places to play, I could raise money for the place that saved you."

"That was the proudest moment of my life," said Yvonne.

Initially, Cody attended small events such as fetes and collected money in a bucket, typically raising £50 to £200. But a trend emerged - at each event, he would normally be invited to another in aid of a different charity, so Cody has played for many good causes, including Battersea Dogs Home, Macmillan Cancer Support, RSPCA, Teenage Cancer Trust, Mutts in Distress, St Clare Hospice, Wipe Away Those Tears, Help for Heroes and Essex Air Ambulance.

Then came his 'big break' - being invited to play with a jazz band at a charity ball. Since then he has been one of the main acts at several major fundraisers.

At one ball, wealthy business people pledged £20,000 just for him to keep playing!

Cody's parents do not know how much their son has raised in total, but it probably adds up to more than £100,000. And he is not stopping there with more bookings - from which he always donates his fee to the chosen charity - coming in.

Cody was one of more than 30 young people to make it through to the YOPEY finals.

Witness appeal after bus attack

DETECTIVES need help trying to identify the culprits responsible for a violent disorder onboard a bus in Romford.

Police say a man threw a rock at the top deck front windscreen of the bus, then re-boarded and threw rocks at passengers.

He got off at South Street. The bus in question was a route five double decker, which starts out in Romford and travels through Ilford onto Canning Town.

The incident took place on Monday, May 29, at 4.40am.

A Metropolitan Police spokesman said: "We're now releasing the images of suspects responsible that we need identified, having had no luck circulating within the police network."

If you recognise anyone in the images above, call 020 3054 5500 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

HELP NEEDED: These men are responsible for causing a violent disorder on a bus.

England star Cole backs Mitchell against Murray

Boxing

ENGLAND and Liverpool footballer is predicting a 'cracking fight' this weekend when Kevin Mitchell takes on John Murray.

The former West Ham player is a big boxing fan and was ringside last year at Upton Park supporting Mitchell in his world title challenge against Michael Katsidis.

With the switch of date for the Mitchell-Murray bout, Cole will miss the big Battle of Britain showdown because he will be on a pre-season tour in Singapore with his Liverpool team mates, but he will be keeping a close eye on the internet for the result.

"It's a big fight for Kevin and he's going to have to dig deep in this one against John, who's a good tough fighter," said Cole.

"Both guys are real warriors and the top boys in Britain, it's been waiting to happen for a while now, I reckon it will turn out to be a really cracking fight."

"Of course, I'm mates with Kevin so I'm siding with him. I was at Upton Park last year supporting him in his world title fight against Katsidis which didn't work out for him, but he can be a clever boxer, as we saw against Breidis Prescott, and he could be too mobile and fast for John."

Mitchell and Murray's bout takes place at the Liverpool Echo Arena on Saturday.

Win for Spartans

ESSEX Spartans American football team returned to winning ways with a dominant performance to sweep aside divisional foes Maidstone Pumas 50-0.

The Spartans were looking to bounce back following their defeat to Watford, and dominated every aspect of the game against the Pumas, scoring a total of seven touchdowns on their way to completing an undefeated home season.

In a match that saw the Billericay-based Spartans debut their new white kit for 2011, running back Oli Huke began the rout with a bulldozing run for six points. Quarterback James Dawson connected with receiver Jon Tottman for the touchdown and then with Andy Clarke for the conversion to extend the Spartans lead to 15-0.

Spartans linebacker James White returned an interception for another score, and with Steven Hull converting, the Spartans led 23-0, a lead Hull extended shortly after with a long run to give the home team a halftime advantage of 29-0.

Ross Sauvage scored his first touchdown of the season in the third quarter, and with Hull and Tottman each scoring again in the fourth, the Spartans destruction of their rivals was complete, much to the delight of Head Coach Marc Saunders.

The Spartans travel to face Division-topping Kent Exiles on Sunday, July 24, knowing that victory will give the team one hand on the Divisional title and a place in the end-of-season playoffs.

Wanstead extend their lead as challengers held to draw

Shepherd Neame Essex Cricket League

PREMIER DIVISION

WANSTEAD extended their lead at the top of the Premier Division as they beat Hainault & Clayhall while rivals Brentwood drew.

The leaders made a quick start at home to Hainault, restricting the visitors to 56-5 at one point. However, Imran Qadir steadied the ship with an unbeaten 106 as Hainault ended on 202 all out with Zain Shahzad and Mohammed Fayyaz Khan each taking four wickets.

However, it proved far too easy with the bat for Wanstead with Arfan Akram's unbeaten 116 and Adnan Akram's 43 guiding them to an eight-wicket win.

Brentwood went to Woodford Wells and seemed to be on track for victory after Aaron West (73) and Michael Pollard (87) helped them to 258-7 in their overs.

Wells proved to be made of stubborn stuff, though, with six players scoring more than 20 runs including Rehan Iqbal's 57, as they ended the match on 218-8.

Colchester & East Essex had the chance to close the gap on Brentwood, but fell foul of Ilford.

Atamad Ul Haqq's 113 helped Colchester to 216-9, but the Ilford attack proved too strong with Mazhar Malik (49), Modassar Ibrahim (72) and Sohail Idrees (50) guiding them to a six-wicket win.

A late knock of 82 from ninth man Mark Drain helped Chelmsford reach a respectable 202 against South Woodford, for whom Harry Shirt took 5-41.

Chelmsford needed the win to keep in touch with the 'safe' zone and they got it despite Max Shirt's 99 as South Woodford were bowled out for 190.

Ardleigh Green won their match at Loughton by 27 runs. Bilal Butt took 5-69 as Ardleigh were dismissed for 221, but they worked their way through the Loughton order to win.

BUCKHURST Hill picked up a two-wicket win over Harold Wood to keep them top of the pile.

Wood put up little resistance as they were dismissed for 141, a total that Buckhurst passed despite Rizwan Qureshi's 5-67.

Shenfield remain in second after their narrow victory over Fives & Heronians. Elliot Richtor (59) helped Shenfield to 181, but Neil Braithwaite put on 71 for Fives as they made a game of it. Arshad Ali took five wickets for Shenfield including that of Braithwaite for the win by four runs.

Jimmy Neesham was the star man for Upminster as they beat Chingford by 21 runs. He took 7-43 as Chingford were bowled out for 175 in response to Upminster's 196 all out.

Orsett are in fourth spot after their 37-run win over Hornchurch. The visitors posted 182 for Hornchurch to chase, but they fell well short.

Gidea Park & Romford move off the bottom after a six-wicket win over Hadleigh & Thundersley.

It was a dismal showing from Hadleigh with the bat as they were dismissed for just 86 and Gidea Park cruised to victory.

DIVISION TWO

SOUTHEND-on-Sea & EMT took over at the top of Division Two after a win for them and a surprise defeat for previous leaders Harlow at the weekend.

Numan Khan's 43 was the top score for Southend as they put up 186-8, but local rivals Westcliff were poor in reply and were all out for 104.

Harlow hosted to bottom club Sutton expecting a win and even after the visitors posted 174 – Hugh O'Dell (52) and Nick Varner (51) – they would have been confident of a win.

However, the wickets tumbled and they were bowled out for 100.

Third-placed Walthamstow put up 163 for Leigh-on-Sea to chase, but the home side fell short and were beaten by 51 runs.

Liam Hubbard took an amazing nine-wicket haul as Horndon on the Hill bowled out Old Southendian & Southchurch for 159.

He was not quite so prolific with the bat, being bowled out for four, and his team mates followed similarly with Horndon all out for 124.

A keenly fought contest at Patmore Memorial Sports Ground saw Wickford overcome visitors Stanford le Hope by six runs.

Wickford put up 209-8 in their overs and then Asif Abbas helped himself to five wickets as they sealed the win.

THINGS are very tight at the top with four teams being separated by four points after this weekend's fixtures.

Basildon & Pitsea are top after a comprehensive win over Epping. Phillip Tooke (91) and Ben Munday (59) helped Basildon to 268-8 and Lee Lewis then took 5-51 as Epping were bowled out for 105.

Benfleet are level on points with Basildon after their 102-run win over struggling Ongar.

Andrew Scott (48) and Gareth Stead (87) helped Benfleet to 218, and they then skittled Ongar for 116.

West Essex are third after their 61-run win over Woodford Green. Having put up 178 for Green to chase, West Essex bowled them out for 117.

Billericay could have gone top with a win over Belhus and they set a decent total for their visitors to chase. Stuart Hynes (53) and Paul Walter (64) put them on their way to 224.

However, Danny Joyce's superb 123 not out – assisted by Joe Joyce's 42 – saw Belhus win by three wickets.

In the battle of the 'Old', Brentwoods got the better of Parkonians by five wickets.

Muhammad Asif's 5-7 restricted Parkonians to 115 and the win was all but a formality.
